

Habitat for Humanity International's vision is a world where everyone has a decent place to live. Anchored by the conviction that safe and affordable housing provides a critical foundation for breaking the cycle of poverty, Habitat has helped more than 3 million people construct, rehabilitate or preserve homes since 1976. Habitat also advocates for fair and just housing policies and provides training and access to resources to help more families improve their shelter conditions. As a non-profit Christian ministry, Habitat works in more than 70 countries and welcomes people of all races, religions and nationalities to partner in its mission. For more information, please visit www.habitat.org.

We are currently seeking to recruit an:

Communications Intern

Responsibilities/Duties:

External communications/Marketing:

- Identify and create a regional editorial contact list of both traditional media and digital influential bloggers/writers who specialize on covering urbanization, community development and affordable and sustainable housing in EMEA.
- Identify the most frequently covered housing and urban development issues in EMEA's international and regional media.
- Help identify topics or problems related to urban development and housing that are currently missing from the international or regional coverage.

Web communications/social media:

- Work with the internet intern to review content on the EMEA website and update it as needed.
- Help post updates and content on the Europe Housing Forum site (new articles, materials and pictures) connected to the housing and urban development topics in Europe.
- Suggest ideas for content to maintain EMEA's social media content.

Working time:

- approximately 20hrs per week (flexible)

Location

- Bratislava, Slovakia

Requirements:

- Journalism or related studies and experience; interested in social and traditional media and engaging with different audiences.
- Fluency in both written and spoken English; knowledge of another language helpful.
- Want to play a role in influencing public 'conversation' and behaviour.
- Working on a degree and can see this internship as an integral part of their future career development.

If you'd like to join the global team in Bratislava and you qualify within the specified job requirements, submit your motivation letter and CV as ONE DOCUMENT in English to Human Resources at emeahr@habitat.org.

Deadline for submitting applications is 31 August, 2016. Only short-listed candidates will be contacted for an interview.

To find out more about Habitat for Humanity, visit <http://www.habitat.org/>

HFHI is an equal opportunity employer and seeks to employ and assign the best qualified personnel for all our positions in a manner that does not unlawfully discriminate against any person because of race, color, religion, gender, marital status, age, national origin, physical or mental disability, sexual orientation, veteran/reserve national guard status, or any other status or characteristic protected by law.